

The most sensitive spot of regime Committee for the Defense of Unjustly Persecuted viewed by its members

Committee for the Defense of Unjustly Persecuted (Výbor na obranu nespravedlivě stíhaných – VONS) was established by the group of Charta 77 signatories on April 27, 1978. The purpose of their activity was the support of victims of police and judicial repression. VONS was the most important opposition organization against the communist regime in Czechoslovakia. This publication is a transcript of the 30 years anniversary meeting of its members on October 19, 2007 in Benda family flat where VONS was established. The discussion was focused on four main themes: the origin of VONS, practical activities of VONS, State Security actions against VONS, the existence of VONS after 1989. The part of publication is the compact disk with all numbers of the journal Informace o Chartě 77 (Information about Charta 77).
